We think we've assembled some of the top young potential herd sires of the breed in this group of bulls, and are excited about their progeny arriving here next spring. They have the EPD profiles, the cow families, and the phenotype to carry the breed forward. Join us in sampling them this fall, along with the proven breed leaders listed to the left.

Most all of our herd sires are available direct from us and through the ORlgen system via many independent distributors. For information on how we think these bulls should be used, or to place your order, call 573-581-1225.
